

Ash “blonding”: signs of recent woodpecker excavation of late instar larvae of emerald ash borer. This instance was pointed out by Bill Davidson (NH Forestry) about 30 seconds after getting out of his truck at the bottom of Weir road. 10 August 2021.

